Have a great Labor Day weekend,
everyone
-- and be
out there!

HORSE SHOW HIGH POINT WINNER - Shanna Baker and her horse Serene Liberty Lee collected 43 points at the Elk Point Open Horse Show Saturday to win the Junior 14 to 17 division of the show, as well as the Heritage Bluesky CEF trophy for Junior High Point. The trophy blanket for the Junior 14 to 17 division was sponsored by Cobra Energy. Shanna went on to St. Paul on Sunday and also won that show's Junior Championship. Congratulations on a super-successful weekend! More winners on Page 2.

Council deals with increased responsibilities

The authority to govern the development and subdivision of property will be placed in the hands of the Town of Elk Point and other municipalities on Friday, September 1, when this former provincial government function is dissolved. The change prompted Town Council to give all three readings to a new bylaw establishing a Development Authority. The Development Authority consists of the members of the Municipal Planning Commission and the Development Officer, with the bylaw ensuring that the Town has both of these in place.

A new bylaw establishing the Municipal Planning Commission was also given all three readings. It replaces the former MPC bylaw, which referred to the Planning Act, with the new bylaw instead referring to the Municipal Government Act.

Council also approved the ratio of 2 council members and 3 appointed members for the Subdivision Appeal Board. It was noted that the majority of members of this committee present for a meeting must never consist of councillors. For example, a meeting with 2 councillors and one appointed member could not be held.

Town Manager Curt Svendsen was appointed as the Returning Officer for the upcoming Municipal Elections. Advance poll for that election was set for October 12, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. in Council chambers.

Two local groups, the Pioneer Circle and the Elk Point Elks Lodge, received forgiveness of taxes on their premises at the meeting. The taxes on the Pioneer Circle's Seniors Recreation Centre and parking lot totalled $8463.57, while those on the Elks Hall totalled $6418.15. The Town will be picking up the tab for the education requisition portion of these tax bills.

A letter was received from former Council member Lawrence Pidluzny expressing a concern regarding the pavement overlay on 52 Street. Council has already decided to go ahead with the project, and requested that a letter be sent to Pidluzny thanking him for his input.

The final accounting of the disbursement of the remaining funds from the Community Cultural Centre bank account was received by Council, with donations by the Toronto Dominion Bank ($1500) and Louis Verhagen ($114) being returned, donations of $5758.61 being given to the Arena Operating Committee Debt Reduction project and $1115.97 to the Royal Canadian Legion Cenotaph fund, and $4020.16 being returned to the Town. The Town agreed to write off the $4979.84 balance of their $9000 allotment to the project.

Health Council steering committee recommends LRHA direct election

Elk Point's Community Health Council Steering Committee met August 16, and chose the process of direct election as their favored way of choosing replacement members for the Lakeland Regional Health Authority Board when current two year terms expire next June.

The Minister of Health has now invited public response to four suggested procedures for replacement of the Board members, by: (1) direct election; (2)

by appointment by the Minister from pools of individuals nominated by municipal councils and community health councils, and through a public application process; (3) by appointment by the Minister based on recommendations from regional selection committees appointed by the Minister from names submitted by municipal councils in the region, with these selection committees to include members of the public, health care providers and municipal government representatives; and (4) a combination of election and appointment.

The Steering Committee discussed the information which had been provided and completed a five page questionnaire, in addition to making their decision on the preferred method, that of direct election. However, they realize that their response will be only one of perhaps hundreds received

Local teens set for Showdown

Three area teens will be part of the Lakeland Rodeo Association's Showdown '95 Finals in St. Paul this weekend.

Erica Nielsen goes into the Junior Barrel Racing competition in second spot after an excellent season, while Pamela Veer is in sixth spot heading into the finals. Season leader is Deana Lyle of Sundre.

CJ Best of Heinsburg, who won the Novice Horse Riding in last year's Showdown, is sitting second for the season behind Trevor Wittmack of Consort.

Don't miss seeing these three talented young people in action, as they vie for the season championships.

by the Implementation Team. The Steering Committee appointed Marvin Bjornstad to chair a team to attend the Medical Doctors Recruitment Conference in Edmonton on September 23 in hopes of attracting an additional doctor to the community and the Elk Point Health Centre.

Regional Health Authority studies patient transportation

The Lakeland Regional Health Authority held the August board meeting in Thorhild, and heard a presentation by Dr. Peter Lindsay and Jon Pascoe of Alberta Health on ambulance services and patient transportation, following the completion of a task force report by the Regional Health Authorities.

They stressed the need for three way participation between the RHAs, municipalities and ambulance operators in the province. An integrated system is necessary to allow patient transfer and emergency response services to work effectively and efficiently to ensure that patient care won't be compromised.

Assessing the health needs of communities within the Lakeland region continues to be a top priority. Darlene Spelton, who is based in the Sherwood Park Health Unit, will coordinate the assessment and will work with Children's Services and Mental Health to organize one assessment which will address health services. The first community to be surveyed will be Lamont, due to the recent fire in their Health Centre.

Approval was given to repair of x-ray equipment in the Two Hills Health Centre.

A meeting was held with the village of Glendon to discuss converting part of their Health Centre into an assisted-living facility, in addition to continuing to provide existing services.

Presentations were made by the County and Village of Thorhild and the Village of Radway regarding the continued need for access to health services such as home care, physiotherapy, children's services, mental health, lab, and school children's needs and health education.

The Thorhild Community Development Board also discussed the challenges faced by a rural small community and the importance of working with the Authority to best address the needs of the community.

The Thorhild Lodge pointed out that their population is aging and residents of the Lodge are requiring more health care than in the past. The suggestion was made to review all services for seniors at the community level to see how services are being provided, how they may be strengthened or what may be changed.

The final presentation of the day was made by the private physical therapy practitioners of the Lakeland Region. The group stressed that the availability of physical therapy services within the Lakeland Region is good, particularly in Sherwood Park and Fort Saskatchewan, and the public should not be concerned with what they hear is happening in the Capital Health Region (Edmonton). There is a need for clarification of Alberta Health's guidelines for physical therapy services (prioritizing patient needs) and third party insurance coverage, and the group asked for the Authority's support in influencing decision makers.

The next meeting of the Regional Health Authority Board will be in Mundare Recreation Centre on September 20 at 1 p.m.

Food Bank needs excess produce

A solution to the old question of what to do with excess garden produce will also aid Edmonton's less fortunate residents. The Edmonton Food Bank is desperately short of food and will gladly accept donations of garden vegetables or fruits, and this year you don't even have to haul these items to the city yourself. Quality Time Buslines in Elk Point has volunteered to deliver produce packed in cardboard boxes and labeled "Food Bank" to its destination at not charge. Your help would be greatly appreciated.

TIC Talk

By Sherry Pelech

Tourist Information Clerk

We are in the process of closing the TIC (Tourist Information Centre) for the year. As always, the year has been entertaining, boring, amusing, confusing, invigorating, informative and more than a little educational. For instance: did you know? "Peter Fidler had seven wives..." "The roads around here are the worst ones in the entire country..." "Your Canada Day celebrations are anti-family..." "Billie Milholland, the local weed eater/historian is seventy years old..." "I Can't Believe You're Thirty!!" (This latter was a sign set up outside the building, and we couldn't believe it either!)

We sincerely hope the information we hand out has more value (and accuracy) than some of the stuff we take in.

There are many things we are going to miss now that the tourism season is over - writing our weekly column, having people drop in for a chat, looking after our glorious flower boxes, cups of tea and wonderful bowls of potato soup next door at Dave's Pizza, the little boy who talks (and argues!) with himself just outside the TIC building...

The one thing we will not miss is the noise. This corner has got to be, bar none, the noisiest corner in the entire town! Large trucks rumble as they speed through town (but maybe they are exempt from the local speed limits.) Horns blare... ("Answer your *$% phone, already!") Vehicles without mufflers roar by... (we are told that some people pay a lot of money to make their trucks sound like that.) Teenagers cruise by with that incessant BOOM! BOOM! BOOM! from their stereos... (they are going to be known as the WHAT? generation.) Children play noisily... ("Get down off that thing before you hurt yourself!") Power saws... ambulance sirens... the crash of thunder... tires squeal... brakes screech... "Can't you tighten that power steering belt?"... CB radios...

So it is with mixed emotions we bid you adieu until next year, when with luck, grants and community cooperation, we will open again at the beginning of June.

Library bids farewell to former staffer

GOODBYE, MARGARET! Librarian Michele Duczek (right) surprised Margaret McGregor with a farewell cake when she visited the Summer Reading Program to tell the participants about her recent visit to Ireland and Scotland. Margaret and her family left last week for their new home in Saskatoon, SK.

What's News at the Library?

Read Around the World wraps up successful season

By Michele Ducek
Librarian

READ AROUND THE WORLD wrapped up this past week and we said goodbye to a former member of the library staff. World traveler Margaret McGregor entertained the Tuesday kids with tales of her travels in Germany, France, Switzerland, Northern Ireland and Scotland. We then surprised Margaret with a cake to say thank you for her years of service to the library, and goodbye. Margaret then made her getaway to Saskatoon.

On Thursday we held a mini-Olympics to honor the second best thing to ever come out of Greece (baklava being the first). We held three events, the winners being Trish Yarmuch, Oliver Buck and James O'Neill. Everyone received a medal.

The draw for the t-shirts was also made last week. The winner in the trivia contest was Andrew Ulrich, who attended every Tuesday session except the first. The art contest winner was Milo Smith, a newcomer to Elk Point, and the consolation winner was James Sparks. Everyone who attended the sessions last week received a certificate of participation as well.

Books by three favorite authors have recently arrived at the library: Kay Scarpetta is on the trail of a sadistic psychopath who has eluded capture for years in

From Potter's Field, the latest from popular author Patricia Cornwell. Things get sticky when it becomes apparent that the killer is as focused on Kay as she is on him.

Fans of David Eddings' Belgariad and Mallorean series can now read the story of how the whole thing started. Belgarath the Sorcerer by David and Leigh Eddings takes us back to the beginning of history when Belgarath was young, and follows his life and the events that lead to the Belgariad. Told by the old man himself, it is filled with asides directed at his daughter, Polgara, who may retaliate by telling her side of things in the Eddings' next novel.

Finally, the vampire Lestat confronts both God and the Devil in Anne Rice's latest installment of the Vampire Chronicles, Memnoch the Devil.
